EXCELLENCE IN ANCIENT & CONTEMPORARY CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

50 Years of Service

It is hard to express just how influential SVS Press has been in its half century of service to God by the written word.

When asked, most of our seminarians tell us that it was an SVS Press publication that brought them to Orthodoxy or gave them a new enlightenment about their faith. The influence goes well beyond the Orthodox Christian world, as books under the SVS Press label have been, and continue to be, very popular in a wide variety of Christian traditions.

All of this began with not a nickel in the bank to support the idea of an English-language, Orthodox-based press. Many recall that there were so few books in English available when the seminary was founded eighty years ago that the library fit into a bathroom in the old location!

Even fifty years ago, the books in English addressing the fields of Patristics, Scripture, Church History, Liturgics, Canon Law, and Pastoral Theology were a rare find.

With over four hundred titles in print, we recognize that the times have changed and interest in what SVS Press produces remains stronger than ever. Please enjoy this 50th Anniversary Catalog and share with friends. Also, note how thankful we are for your interest and many years of support. At SVS Press we look forward to fifty more years of service to Christ and those who are counted as both disciples and seekers.

Yours in the Incarnate Word,

The Very Rev. Dr. Chad Hatfield

PRESIDENT, ST VLADIMIR'S ORTHODOX THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

The Mission of SVS Press Continues

“SVS Press has achieved a reputation for permitting a free expression of ideas within the breadth of the Orthodox faith, tradition, and history, while insisting on works of theological excellence.”

When I wrote those words many years ago, only God knew that this mission of the Press would bear so much fruit and provide such an abundance of resources to future generations.

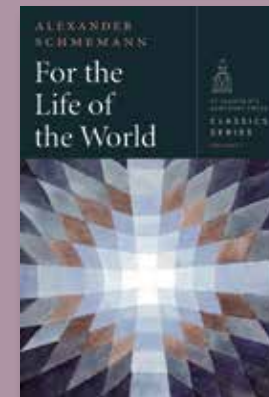

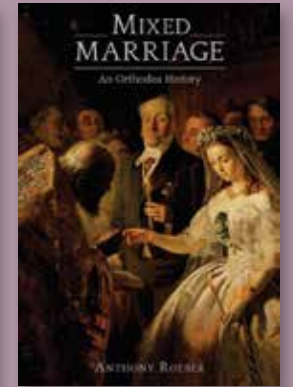

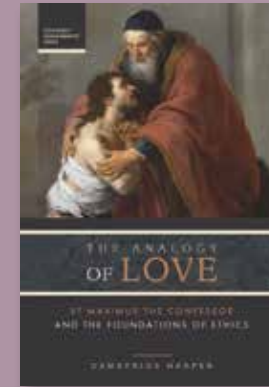

St Vladimir’s Seminary (SVS) Press began half a century ago through modest and humble means to spread God’s Word “in spirit and in truth” (John 4.24). Many people have contributed to the success and work of our Press over these years: managers, directors, editors, customer service and shipping employees, designers, student helpers, deans, faculty members, and authors. There are too many to name, but their contributions and sacrifices should be recognized and given immense gratitude. This year SVS Press celebrates our fiftieth anniversary. Founded in 1968, SVS Press today is the largest and most active publisher of Orthodox Christian books in the English language, with more than four hundred titles in print. As you peruse our catalog you will find a wide variety of titles and material in the various disciplines of Theology, History, Ecclesiology, Ecumenism, Hagiography, Iconography, Spirituality, Scriptural Studies, Music, Pastoral Theology, Christian Education, Philosophy, Biography, and Patristics, along with children’s books, CDs, audio programs, and greeting cards. Many of our books and music resources are available in Kindle, ePub, and iTunes formats. SVS Press products are available around the globe as well, and our excellent international distributors include the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge (SPCK) in the United Kingdom, Novalis Publishing in Canada, and Crossroad Books in Australia. After all these years, it gives me incredible joy to see that the primary mission of SVS Press—the publication and distribution of quality Orthodox Christian material, both on the scholarly and popular levels—is as alive and fruitful as ever.

SENIOR ADVISOR TO SVS PRESS
